Text: Mark 8:27-35

Title: "Things"

Introduction

Parents find it frustrating to get "whatever" or "stuff" or "things" for an answer. What did you do today? Stuff. Like what? Things. It is frustrating to God when we have the "things of man" on our minds instead of the "things of God."

I. The "things of man" on mind.

- A. Peter and Paul sometimes had the "things of man" on their minds.
- B. We sometimes have the "things of man" on our minds.

II. The "things of God" on mind.

- A. Peter and Paul had the "things of God" on their minds.
- B. We need to have the "things of God" on our minds.

Conclusion

There's all kinds of "stuff" and "things" that we can do in life, but most are the "things of man." We have been called to faith, like cream, we rise to the top; deny ourselves, take up our cross and follow Jesus through life and through the gates of heaven.
