

Sermon Outline for October 21, 2018

Text: Mark 10:23-31

Title: "Impossible?"

Introduction

In our Gospel today, Jesus talks about entering the kingdom of heaven and life as one in that kingdom. In one case, he describes it as very difficult, not really impossible but really, really difficult. In another, he describes it as truly impossible. So which one is it?

- I. Is it impossible for the rich to go to heaven?

- II. It is impossible for anyone to be saved on his/her own.

- III. God has done the impossible.

Conclusion

But remember, no matter how difficult it gets, the Mission: Impossible is Mission: Accomplished because Jesus has completed his mission for us. We are assured of the victory in Christ because he did the Mission: Impossible.
